PRAYER BY JOANN SEGhini

Our Dear and Loving God,

We come before you at the opening of this session of the Utah State Senate. We share many beliefs and attributes. We recognize that, as government, we are part of the greatest constitutional republic that has ever been conceived. This republic is based on the principles of freedoms for all people, rising from the choice and voice of those people. Government exists to protect those freedoms. Help us to remember that we are the representatives of the governed. Our task is difficult. Our job is not to define freedom, rather, it is to support the laws of nature and nature's God as defined in the Bill of Rights and our constitution. We are asked to protect each person's life, liberty, and right to pursue happiness. It is important to protect each person's right to enjoy the fruits of his or her own labors. They, as the people, have the protected right to express their own sentiments, to defend their nation, and to live their lives according to their conscience.

Help us, as elected officials while in the public square, to work for the welfare of the people. Discussions, in that public square, must seek solutions through civil discourse designed to find common ground and to support the common good. Our founders have described our responsibilities as coming from you, the supreme source and our Creator. It is our responsibility to remember that ours, then, is a solemn duty as we work as one nation, one state, one community, under God's direction.

We are called public servants, Hence, we are called to serve. Help us make decisions with equal concern for the powerful and the powerless. Let our work reflect the higher purpose to which we are called. Let us remember that our service is to preserve those principles that represent our government and direct us to protect the freedom of all people while we serve those who have chosen us to be their protectors.

Dear God, we pray for your direction and thank you for your love. Amen
